

Robinson Crusoe Fishing Restoration Project

Connecting the North American Fisheries with the South American Fisheries destroyed in the Chilean Tsunami. We are raising money to replenish the fishing gear and equipment for this unique fishery.

Please count me in!*

- I am including herein a check in the amount of $_____ (see below)
- I am pledging to contribute $_____. Please contact me for follow-up (see below)
- I will make my pledge on-line at helpjuanfernandezislands.org. Please look for my pledge there!

Name: _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone _____ E-mail (if preferred) _____

Fishing Trade Organization, if applicable: _____

For further information about our project, contact Jenni Klein, 206.300-9557; jenklein57@msn.com or Edward Poulsen, 206.992-3260; edpoulsen@comcast.net.

✚ Make checks payable to “Juan Fernandez Islands Fishing Community”

✚ Mail checks to:

Jenni Klein/ Juan Fernandez Islands Relief Funds
c/o United Catcher Boats
4005 20th Ave W Ste 116
Seattle, Wa 98199

THANK YOU!

Edward Poulsen, Billy Ernst, Diego Holmgren, Jim Stone, Kale Garcia, Lynn Walton, Margaret Hall, Peter Hodum and Wally Pereyra.

**The North Pacific Industry, in order to streamline the donation process, is working through the Oikonos organization. Oikonos is a non-profit 501 ©(3)(tax ID: 03-0385067) organization working locally and internationally to increase awareness about marine ecosystems on imperiled islands.*